DETAILED ACTION

This office action is a response to the amendment filed on 6/3/2005.

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 6/3/2005. These drawings are accepted.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,360,426.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,360,426 includes all of the recited limitation of claim 4 of the present invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-3 and 6-11 are allowed.
5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art of record fails to disclose the claimed invention. The closest reference of Coon (US PAT. 6,320,729) teaches a process of juxtaposing at a common plane the load beam and the flexure and intersecting a first plural locator structures on the load beam with a second plural locator structures on the flexure across the common plane. However, Coon fails to teach that the plurality of locator structures in the load beam having raised sections raised out of the general plane of the load beam and a plurality of locator structures in the flexible circuit having a laminate of trace conductors and on insulative film. It is not obvious taken alone or in combination of other references fairly to suggest the claimed invention.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-11 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
